Janus International Announces Rolling Steel Expansion

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

(Temple, GA – January 4, 2011) Janus International has acquired the rolling steel manufacturing line from Windsor Republic Doors of Little Rock, Arkansas. The acquisition will allow Janus to now manufacture their Challenger medium duty rolling steel door (the Janus MD door) in Surprise, Arizona in addition to the headquarters location in Temple, Georgia. Certain guide configurations will also be offered that are similar in design to those of Windsor Republic Doors. “This acquisition further illustrates our strong standing in the rolling steel community,” states Janus President David Curtis. “Expanding our manufacturing locations and capabilities offers us greater range and service to our customers.”
